

Rules and Regulations

- Members must not hold or voice any extreme political opinions. Any one found doing so will be liable to Immediate expulsion.
- Membership is open to both men and women with a real interest in living history and re-enactment.
- Members must be 16 years of age or older
- Applicants must be physically fit, of sound mind and of good character.

Members must strive to:

- Obtain and maintain the uniform and equipment set out in the uniform requirement section.
- Work together with other members to improve and refine the portrayal of Panzer Lehr
- To represent our re-enactment group in a good light.
- Members must have the appropriate Public Liability insurance needed, either through AFRA (recommended) or through another source.. Proof will need to be provide prior to commencement of active membership.
- Active membership is mandatory. To be considered an active member you must attend at least 3 events each year.
- Members are responsible to notify us of any changes in contact details.
- Always treat the public, especially veterans with the utmost respect.
- All reasonable commands issued by a group leader or event organiser must be carried out without complaint.
- Anyone found using illicit substances will be dismissed from the group.